Steve

I have been working with my client and my calendar to formulate a proposed schedule.

Regarding procedure, we agree that deposition notices may be served as between parties without subpoenas which I understood to be the situation in any event.

Determining dates of unavailability requires some assessment of what adjustments can be made in other matters.

I will respond further tomorrow or over the weekend regarding dates so we can file our Status Conference Statements on Monday for the Wednesday hearing.

At the moment I do not comment on your remark concerning December 4 other than to mention that the case has been active in the period since 12/4 with the holidays intervening as well.

Subject: RE: Brad A. Bening, Esq. - Availability and Rate Inquiry

Mr. Jacobson:

As I explained in an earlier email, we are not available February 1st for a mediation. I am out of the country on a preplanned vacation the last week of January.

As I also explained, you have represented Claimant's view of case value in a mediation. That valuation is based on the Mateo appraisal. Because of the vast difference in valuation between the Mateo appraisal and the Patton appraisal, we believe that a mediation without the benefit of testing these divergent valuation assessments will not be fruitful.

I have repeatedly, since December 4th, requested that you provide us with the following:

1. Dates of availability for the Mateo deposition.
2. Dates of availability for the deposition of Mr. Shahmirza as an expert, based on the expert designation you submitted.
3. What PG&E experts Claimant desires to depose and proposed dates.
4. Whether Claimant will agree to accept notices of deposition in lieu of subpoenas.
5. Available dates for mediation after concluding expert depositions presently set for completion by March 1, 2024.
6. Dates of unavailability and proposed/preferred dates to set this matter for trial if mediation is not successful in resolving this matter.

The Court has set a further status conference on January 24, 2023 at 10 a.m. We hoped to be able to prepare a joint status conference report. Given your lack of response we will unilaterally prepare a status conference report.

Regards

lamb

Steve

I've reviewed your recent emails to and from Joanna Barton, case manager for Mr. Bening, in which you solicited Mr. Bening's availability she provided the dates indicated below.

Again, Mr. Bening is not available for 2 ½ months.

As I understand that Michael Ornstil mediated other PG&E litigations, including fire cases, I inquired as to his availability.

Lisa Midel, Mr. Ornstil's case manager, advised this morning that Mr. Ornstil is available on February 1, 2024, due to a cancellation. Otherwise, he also is not available until April.

I propose to you that we schedule with Mr. Ornstil as that will provide the practical advantage of mediation prior to the necessity to conduct extensive discovery of all PG&E declarants with all their records concerning the reconstruction and relocation of the towers and lines as well as the depositions of the appraisers.

Mr. Ornstil's bio is at: <https://www.jamsadr.com/michael-ornstil/>.

Neither my client nor I have had any prior engagement with him.

Please advise as promptly as possible so that we can obtain the February 1 date while available.

Dear Counsel,

I am following up on the below.

I have placed a hold on February 14th with Mr. Bening accordingly. So that we can keep this matter on hold and finalize the reservation, please confirm the following, by no later than end of day tomorrow, January 4th (otherwise we will need to release the date to other inquiries):

1. How fees are to be allocated amongst the parties
2. Venue for the mediation (by Zoom video-conferencing, or in person at our San Francisco Office, San Jose Office, or Oakland office)
3. What time counsel would like the mediation to start (10:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m.)

4. Whether it will be a full or half-day mediation

Once I have been provided with the above, our office will issue formal notice to all. Please note that preparation time for the hearing may increase if more than two parties participate in the Mediation.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions or if I can be of additional assistance.
